

Glimmer Train's October 2010
Family Matters

1st-place: Lee Montgomery for "Torture Techniques of North Americans"

2nd-place: Graham Arnold for "A Difference of Nothing"

3rd-place: Maggie Shipstead for "The Sadness That Radiates From God"

Top 25, listed in alphabetical order:

Jennifer Robin Adams for "Coward Springs"

Alison Baker for "Popeye's Theorem"

Stace Budzko for "Spare Parts"

Neil Carpathios for "Like a String"

Nicole Cullen for "Home of the Savages"

Emily Danforth for "A Ditch; A Channel"

Laurie Frankel for "Pelican Hill"

Cynthia Gregory for "Not My Suicide"

Alison Hess for "Ask and Answer"

Paul Ketzle for "Prairie Dogs"

Travey Levine for "At the Diner in Heaven"

Eva Lomski for "When the Dirt Starts Moving"

Devin Murphy for "Our One Year of Knowing the World"

Brett Paesel for "Nothing Changes"

Sarah Rossiter for "The Memory of Water"

Kaethe Schwehn for "Rescue"

William Shih for "The pH of Blood"

Elizabeth Silver for "Olga Liberty"

Adam Sturtevant for "Job"

Jaclyn Thomas for "No More, Sweetheart"

Damian Van Denburgh for "It Must Be Him"

Jeremy Wilson for "Everything Is Going to Be Okay"

Congratulations, and thank you for letting us read your stories!

Susan! Lind